

Mentoring

After the first Global Youth Awards ceremony, the Society will embark on a project that will seek to match budding youth leaders with mentors around the world. Members of the society will be invited to enrol on the programme where they agree to mentor at least 1 youth leader.

Details will to be finalised. For more information, please contact us.