

Essay Competition

Essay Competition

As part of the premiere Global Youth Awards, an essay writing competition is being organised to create an literary montage of what the perspectives of youth are on Globalisation.

This is competition is open to all.

The title of the essay is: "The role of young people in a globalised world."

Entries are welcomed from all corners of the world.

To enter the competition, please click here OR to get a young person to participate, simply click here to send them a link to this page.